BATTLING NELSON STILL WONDER

Battling Nelson is making a successful tour of the south, meeting all comers, and incidentally proving that none of the second raters stands much of a chance with him. Teddy Murphy, who handled Nelson years ago on the coast, saw him fight in New Orleans the other night and he has this to say of the former champion:

"I was inclined myself to pity him until I saw him battle in New Orleans against Redmond. But I quickly lost that feeling after the battle had been on for about ten rounds. It looked to me in the seventh and eighth rounds like Redmond had a chance to put Nelson down for the count, but, like all the rest of the spectators, I was badly fooled. The Battler came back in the ninth and tenth and fought like a whirlwind making the fight more than even and finally winning out by another spurt toward the end.

"Now, I wouldn't exactly like to say that Nelson is as good as ever he was, but this I am sure of: He is just as tough as ever and is in no danger of having any of the present day second-raters kill him in the ring.

"There is one thing that helps Nelson a whole lot in this present campaign. He doesn't bother his head about making any weight. He scaled around 142 pounds, I should say, and of course, is tremendously strong at that figure. He declines to make weight because he says he is doing so much traveling around that he hasn't time to stop long enough to get down to a low figure. What he would do if forced to make 133 pounds I could not say. It might weaken him terribly and put him out of business. But at catch weights he certainly is a wonder right now, and none of the second-raters would have a single chance with him in a battle of twenty rounds. They went wild over him in New Orleans, and doubtless will repeat him with Redmond there inside of a month's time."

BOXING CARD FOR SATURDAY

Jimmy Lemon will pull off his boxing exhibition at the Athletic Park next Saturday night as per schedule. It will be the first time that an open-air boxing show has been staged in Honolulu and the result will be watched with interest.

The first bout will be put on at 8 o'clock. The ring will be erected on the diamond and the grandstand will be well lighted.

Lemon announces that all his men are in shape for their respective bouts and that he expects every contest to be a hummer.

The card has an attractive look and should appeal strongly to the Saturday night crowd looking, as usual, for something interesting in the amusement line.

The program follows:

Woodward (Fort Shafter) vs. Clarke (Navaio), ten rounds.
Trier (Camp Very) vs. Willer (Fort Shafter), eight rounds.
"Omaha" Abrams vs. Howard (Fort de Russy), six rounds.

Tickets are on sale at the Territorial Messenger Service.

WHO IS CHAMPION MIDDLEWEIGHT?

There is much discussion of Ben de Mello among the fight fans and the consensus of opinion seems to be that he is a very hard man to knock out and that if Hoao wins it will be by means of a decision.

There is no doubt that the Portuguese is a wonder at assimilating punishment, a veritable Joe Grim, in fact. Also he has at least one good, sleep-producing punch in his bag of tricks.

While the Hoao contingent are just as firmly convinced as ever that their champion will win, they appear to have suddenly realized that in de Mello the clever Hawaiian will be stacked ing up against a fighter who doesn't know what it is to back up and who is improving all the time.

There seems to be some good battles in sight among the middleweights what with Hoao, Gilmore, de Mello, Bauersocks, Clarke, Woodward, McGuire and McGrath in the running. Woodward and Clarke will settle the question of supremacy on Saturday night and the following week Hoao and de Mello will strive for mastery.

These two bouts will clear the pugilistic atmosphere considerably and will facilitate the task of deciding who is the champion middleweight boxer of the Territory.

HEADED FOR AUSTRALIA TO RACE WITH SOUTH AFRICAN CHAMPION

NAT CARTMELL

PHILADELPHIA, January 19.—Nat Cartmell, the former star sprinter of the University of Pennsylvania, who is now a professional, will sail for Australia early in the spring to meet Donaldson, the South African champion, in Melbourne. The race will be for $1,000 a side and the world's championship. Donaldson holds the world's professional record for a hundred yards. Last year he went the distance in 9 3-5 seconds, defeating Postle and Holway in Australia.

MILLER WILL ACCOMPANY SWIMMERS

Duke Kahanamoku, Jr., and Vincent Genoves will leave for the mainland by the S. S. Honolulu sailing tonight. They will be accompanied by Lew G. Henderson and "Dude" Miller.

It was decided at the last moment to send Miller along. He knows the boys intimately and can talk Hawaiian, a fact which should be of great help to the expedition as far as Kahanamoku is concerned.

Miller is president of the Hui Nalu, under whose auspices the two local boys are being sent to the mainland. Entries were cabled last night by John Soper as follows:

Kahanamoku—50, 100 and 220 yards.
Genoves—500 yards and 800 yards.
should there be a race at the latter distance.

Henderson and Miller will have their expenses paid, but will receive no remuneration in the way of salary.

The following subscriptions to the expense fund were received yesterday:
Morris Rosenblydt, $10; Good Friend, $20; Woman's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Club, $25.

While there has been some rather pointed discussion as to whom should accompany the swimmers to the mainland and some little criticism, it should be remembered that the boys are being sent away by public subscription and that they are going under the auspices of the HUI NALU, to whom the fund will be turned over, and NOT under the auspices of any local promotion body.

SCHOOLS TO RUN AGAIN

The second road race between the Oahu College and Kamehameha Schools teams will take place this afternoon, the start being made at 3:45. The course will be from Kamehameha Schools to Fort Shafter and return.

The first race between these two teams over a course from the Aquarium to Thomas Square was won by the Kama by a narrow margin.

Both teams will make a desperate effort to carry off the honors in this afternoon's race.

The men will be scored in the order in which they finish and the team having the lowest aggregate of points will be declared the winner.

FIFTY YARDS ON PROGRAM

The committee in charge of the A. A. U. athletic meeting which will be pulled off on Floral Parade day met yesterday afternoon and transacted some important business.

It was agreed to add the following
